

Tell us about your need for workers Congress needs to know!

April 2, 2009

Immigration skeptics say we don't need foreign workers - "Raise the wage," they say, "and an American will take the job."

As an employer who hires foreign workers, you know better. You know how hard you look for U.S. workers - even in the downturn. You know what kind of wages you pay. You know how your foreign workers help keep your business afloat and keep Americans employed.

But as unemployment rises, skepticism is growing. Lawmakers are looking less and less favorably on the visas you depend on.

And Congress will soon consider legislation that could gut the H2B program.

We need to start preparing for that battle - we need ammunition!

Tell us your story and help us make the case to Congress: we need foreign workers - even in a recession.

To tell your story, simply reply to this email by clicking here.

Use as many or as few words as you like. Please do tell us what kind of business you run, how many workers you could use, and what state you live in. We do not have to submit your name if you wish not to include signature.

THANK YOU FOR HELPING TO MAKE THE CASE!
